

BOARD POLICY

Subject: Board of Trustees
Series 214: College Board Member Liability

The College shall defend, save harmless, and indemnify Board members against claims made against them by reason of a wrongful act, error or omission, committed or alleged to have been committed while acting in their capacity as a trustee of the College.

However, the College shall not save harmless nor indemnify any Board member against any claim made against them if the wrongful act, error or omission was intentional, fraudulent, or dishonest.
