INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

Kirkwood Report:
Justin Hoehn, Associate Director of Marketing, provided the Eagle Update and Kirkwood Report, which included:
- A highlight of the 10-year history of the Jones County Regional Center including interviews with Center Director Lisa Folken, student Wyatt Bickford, student Gabby Gadient, student Dustin Still, instructor Diane Temple, and adjunct Staci Fritz.
- Student of the Month: Wyatt Bickford, from Anamosa, Iowa, who is a dual enrollment student.
- The KCCK tower was struck by lightning, which damaged a critical circuit board and knocked the station offline for the days of September 27-30.
- The Kirkwood International Programs department hosted a group of 22 students and 2 faculty members from partner school Zealand Business College for the past two weeks. Another group from the Zealand Institute of Business and Technology will be arriving on Saturday, October 12.
- An update on the volleyball team’s season and their big win over Iowa Central on Wednesday night.
- Hoehn also shared a Jones County alumni success story featuring Colton Halder who attended the Advanced Manufacturing Academy for the Fall of 2012 and Spring of 2013. He finished his degree at Kirkwood and now teaches the academy at Jones County Regional Center.

Financial Report:
Treasurer Choate discussed the Composite Financial Index (CFI), which is utilized by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) in their accreditation process and annual review of higher education institutions. Choate provided a detailed definition of the CFI and the four ratios that compose it. Detailed information was provided regarding the inputs to each ratio and the impact of each on the overall CFI scoring. Discussed the historic CFI calculation and the adjustments that have been approved by the HLC related to three specific items within Kirkwood’s financial results. With the revised CFI calculations, Kirkwood is well above the thresholds set by the HLC. Significant improvements in the relationship with the HLC were also discussed due to changes in administration. There were no changes to the annual projection at this early point in the year.
Programs and Students served at Jones Regional Center:
Lisa Folken, Director at Jones County Regional Center, showcased the Jones County Regional Center through a facility tour and presentation. The Jones County Regional Center presentation, entitled, “Programs and Students served at Jones Regional Center” took a brief look at their first ten years: where they’ve been since opening the doors in 2009, how they’ve evolved to meet school partner and community needs, what makes them special, learner success stories, and the impact on their local communities.
