INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

Kirkwood Report:
Justin Hoehn, Associate Director of Marketing, provided the Eagle Update and Kirkwood Report, which included:
  o Washington Hall construction update.
  o Upcoming event dates for a student art exhibition and the next four home volleyball games.
  o Students in Kirkwood's Parks and Natural Resources program have been working on a project to study and reverse the drop in the monarch butterfly population.
  o Student of the Month: Aaron Woods, from Coggon, Iowa, enrolled in the Respiratory Therapy Program.
  o The Kirkwood Eagles Golf team has earned a number 3 ranking in the NJCAA Division II Bushnell/Golfweek Coaches poll. To kick off the fall season, the Eagles backed up their ranking by winning their first tournament of the 2019-2020 campaign.
  o Student group Active Minds set up a display of flags representing the approximate number of students who die by suicide each year. 1,100 flags were displayed just outside in the courtyard near Linn Hall.
  o Kirkwood held the annual Presidential and Leaders Scholarship Dinner on Tuesday at the Hotel at Kirkwood Center. This event is held every year to welcome the recipients of the Presidential and Leaders for Tomorrow scholarships to campus. The dinner honored 49 recipients this year.
  o A rundown of a few numbers related to the effort it takes to put on Welcome Week for the students

Financial Report:
Treasurer Choate reviewed the FY20 construction project budget and provided detailed current estimates for each project.
  o Overall, the construction project budget is a net $49k higher than the original estimates presented to the board in November 2018.
  o Treasurer Choate also provided an update on The Hotel renovation project noting no major changes from information presented at the August meeting. Hotel construction bid packages will be going out on 9/13 and some long lead items related to FFE will be ordered the week of 9/16.
Choate then provided a detailed overview of FY20 expected debt/financing activities. Major item discussed was the planned issuance of $20mm of GOB debt in early 2020 to finance the construction projects of Iowa and Washington Halls. Refinancing of a portion of the Certificates of Participation is currently being evaluated and will be brought back to the board in October, if necessary. Trustee Ronnekamp inquired about the CFI calculation related to the HLC upcoming visit. President Sundberg and Choate explained the process completed with the HLC over the past couple of months noting the HLC has approved all recommended adjustments to our CFI for the past five years. At this time there have been no changes to the FY20 unrestricted fund projection.
