I was a noncitizen who entered the U.S. AFTER the age of 26. If you entered the United States for the first time after your 26th birthday, you must provide documentation to support your claim. Please indicate one reason from the list below and submit the appropriate documentation.

Submit the following information with this form:

- Valid documentation from the list below:

Entry stamp in your passport when you came into this country for the first time after his 26 birthday.

I-94 with entry stamp on it,

A letter from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) indicating the date you entered the United States.

If you entered the United States illegally after your 26th birthday, you must provide proof that you were not living in the United States from age 18 to age 26.

* Please note: your Resident Alien Card (Green Card) is not valid as proof of entry to the United States.

I was a lawful non-immigrant who entered the U.S. BEFORE the age of 26. If you entered the United States as a valid non-immigrant alien and remained in that status until your 26th birthday, you must provide documentation to support your claim.

Submit the following information with this form:

- A Selective Service Status Information Letter (SIL). For additional information visit <http://www.sss.gov/instructions.html> or call (847) 688-6888.

AND

- Valid documentation from the list below:

F1 Student Visa- if you entered the United States as an F-1 Student, and remained in that status until your 26th birthday, you would need to provide documentation indicating that you were admitted on an F-1 visa and attended school full-time as required. (Acceptable documents for this situation includes copies of your I-20 or a letter from the school you attended indicating your full time attendance as a non-immigrant alien).

Other non-immigrant statuses: You must submit documentation of your status when you entered the U.S. You must explain, if at any point, you violated the terms of your visa, or overstayed your visa and became an undocumented alien.

You should provide as much information as possible. We will use the information you provide to determine your registration status.
