Patient Rights and Responsibilities

You have a right to:
- Be treated with dignity and respect, regardless of your race, religion, age, sex, beliefs, or lifestyle.
- Expect that your medical records will be kept confidential.
- Expect that your personal privacy will be respected by all Campus Health staff.
- Know the names and positions of the people serving you.
- Receive education and explanations to your questions.
- Consent to or refuse treatment, except as prohibited by law, and to be informed of the consequences of making this decision.
- Review your medical records with a nurse.
- Obtain another medical opinion.

You have a responsibility to:
- Be honest about your medical history and other information you give us.
- Ask questions if you do not understand the explanation of your diagnosis or treatment.
- Follow health care advice and medical instructions.
- Respect clinic policies.
- Report any changes or lack of improvement in your health.
- Be accountable for any charges billed to you by a physician or related medical facility.