

Work Study Interview Questions

What is your background or experience?

What are your computer skills?

What do you consider your best skill to be and how can it be applied to this position?

How do you handle constructive criticism?

What are your interests and why are you interested in this work study position?

What is your availability?