Learning to Read and Write
Developmentally Appropriate Practices for Young Children

Section Two: Readers and Writers in the Making

1. Find two ideas/activities from the reading that will build home-school literacy connection and encourage family involvement.

2. Provide examples of effective print rich environments.

3. Literacy experience suggestions for infants and toddlers include:

4. Some suggested literacy props in the classroom include:

5. Ideas to support English Language Learners include:

6. Teachers build children’s knowledge and comprehension in reading activities by:

7. Teachers can support phonological development by:
Mayesky – Key Terms/Concepts

Chapter 18 – Creative Language Experiences

Key terms

- Literacy

- Inclusive Environment

- Antibias curriculum

- Pretend reading

Concepts to Study

- Bilingual/bicultural language development: How can teachers support children? What type of activities benefit bilingual children?

- Tips for reading aloud to young children include:

- Why is Mother Goose Back in style?