How do I know who my advisor is?
Log in to EagleNet and view “My Profile” to see your advisor’s name.

When should I see my advisor?
You should meet with your advisor before registration begins. Contact your advisor for an appointment.

Why should I see my advisor?
To make sure you are taking the appropriate classes to fulfill your degree and/or transfer requirements!

When can I register for classes?
Spring 2013 priority registration is November 4th through November 11th.

When will I know the spring class offerings?
Spring classes will be posted on EagleNet September 30.

What if I don’t plan to return next year?
If you expect to graduate – confirm that you have met the requirements with your advisor. If you are not graduating with a degree but plan to transfer to a four-year college and would like help in that process, stop in the Advising & Transfer Center in 108 Iowa Hall.

Do you have questions about counseling and/or career services?
Stop in 108 Iowa Hall or phone us at 398-5471.

Enrolling at a four year university or college next semester?
Application deadlines are important to know – as a rule we encourage you to have all admission materials submitted by November 1st so as to be eligible for early orientation. You should check with each institution for deadlines they may have in place. If you would like help in that process, stop in the Advising & Transfer Center in 108 Iowa Hall.
