

English Language Acquisition (ELA) Courses

These courses are intended for students pursuing a Kirkwood degree, but needing further English instruction and preparation prior to taking college level courses.

You will take five classes at each ELA level and gain proficiency in the following areas:

- Academic Writing
- Pronunciation
- Research Skills
- Conversation Fluency
- Grammar
- Listening & Note Taking
- Computer Literacy
- Reading & Vocabulary Development
- American Cultural Skills
- Presentation Skills

Kirkwood offers the following courses in ELA. While ELA courses do not transfer to other colleges and universities, four of the Level 5 bridge classes, which count as 12 elective credits, and the Kirkwood speech requirement, are transferable.

Level 5 Bridge Classes

Level 5 ELA Students take five classes. Of these classes, four are bridge classes. These classes are taught in the same way as other credit courses, which allows students to practice their new skills and gauge their capacity for success after leaving ELA coursework.

If you wish to improve your English language skills for other educational purposes, work use or social settings, Kirkwood has non-credit options. Please call 319-887-3646 for information about Iowa City courses and 319-784-1510 for Cedar Rapids courses.
