[Insert Sender Greeting],

This November 3, voters will have the opportunity to decide on a crucial bond measure for Kirkwood Community College. As Election Day approaches, I encourage you to learn more about the measure, what it includes, and how it could affect the college and our region.

Kirkwood helps students prepare for careers, supports local employers by developing a skilled workforce, and provides educational opportunities that benefit people throughout Eastern Iowa. Its impact can be seen everyday in the success of its students, graduates, and the communities it serves.

Whether you have a connection to Kirkwood as a student, graduate, employer, parent, or community member, taking time to understand the bond measure and the role Kirkwood plays in our area can help you make an informed decision.

This issue will have a profound effect on our region and its future. You can find out more by going to www.kirkwood.edu/bond2026.
